Three Months Raglan Property Management Free Trial

Whilst you are enjoying your well deserved holiday you can completely unwind knowing that your beautiful property and tenants are being looked after with care and dedication by Raglan.

We are offering a completely free trial for three months of our Raglan Property Management Service.

There is no obligation to stay with us after this period – in fact you could even be cheeky - ask us to manage your property, pop over to St. Kitts for two weeks, relax, unwind, and then come back to London and manage your property yourself. Although we are fairly confident that you will be so happy with our service you'll use us forever.

If you are a currently a Tenant and your Estate Agency keeps on telling you that the washing machine will be fixed next week, put your Landlord in touch with us and your problems will be solved quickly and effectively you could even win yourself a holiday in the Caribbean – contact us for details (Terms Apply).

- The Raglan Property Management Service performs four annual property inspections. (most other agents are 3 per annum) You then get a detailed report.
- Complete transparency of all invoices. Any works done in your property are only ever, ever 100% necessary.
- 365/24/7 call out for landlords and tenants – (we had to arrange for a loo to be unblocked on Boxing day!)
- Raglan Property Management Service fees are often tax deductible which makes the Raglan Property Management Service even more attractive.
